FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WASHINGTON, Saturday Evening, Aug. 28.
Financial circles were quiet and prosaic until the latter part of the week, when the sudden and unexpected news of the California Bank failures disturbed the street, scattering dismay and panic among the habitues of Wall street and other markets throughout the country. But as we expected the fallure was mainly of a local character in its financial destruction, and the unsettling of stocks in Wall street was only temporary, and was soon bridged over to a condition of quictude and con-fidence. The panie is about over in San Francisco, and the Exchange will be reopened Monday.

There has been a slight decrease in New York reserves, but the banks yet hold an ex-cess over liability of gm, sv2,125.

Local stocks have been dull at home and abroad,
